Educating Students on the Autism Spectrum

A WORKSHOP FOR RECEIVING TEACHERS K-12

Presenter:

Scott Aldrich, M.A., CCC-SLP

Program Manager, Speech/Language Services
Tulare County Office of Education

Mr. Aldrich is a Speech and Language Specialist/ Trainer as well as lecturer and consultant on speech & language assessments and interventions for students on the autism spectrum.

As students with autism move from grade to grade, the receiving teachers often have questions and concerns. This workshop is designed to outline the classroom needs of students with autism who will be attending grades K-12 in the coming school year. The workshop will address the areas of academics, behavior, sensory needs, and social/ communication skills.
