

Curriculum Designs - Preschool

It is the intent of the SELPA that preschool instructional programs be child and family centered. Preschool programs shall be directed toward building school readiness of all children, including children with exceptional needs.

Research-based instruction and curriculum shall be utilized in all special education preschool programs.

Special education preschool programs shall assist the child in attaining social, emotional, physical and cognitive development.