

Student Participation in Extracurricular Activities

Each LEA within the SELPA shall make available to special education students non-academic and extracurricular services and activities generally available to general education students, including but not limited to counseling, physical education, health services, school clubs and recreation.

Such services shall be made available and reasonable accommodations shall be made available to ensure an equal opportunity basis with other for all students.

References:

20 USC 1412(a)(2); Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973
EC 56205(a)(2).