Superintendents Governance Committee – Members and Areas Represented

The Superintendents Governance Committee shall be made up of fifteen (15) members.

Members are as follows:

1. Superintendents from the twelve (12) largest districts within the SELPA; joint administrative districts count as a single district.

2. Two (2) members appointed by Tulare County Superintendent of Schools for a three-year term, who represent districts under 901 student average daily attendance (ADA).

3. Tulare County Superintendent of Schools.

4. Members appointed shall assure representation of the Superintendents and Boards of all the districts in the Special Education Local Plan Area and Tulare County Office of Education.

5. Members of the Superintendents Governance Committee may be represented by a designee only in the case of an emergency. The designee is not empowered with a proxy vote.
