Student Referral for Services

The Administrator of the Special Education Local Plan Area shall prepare written procedure for receiving, documenting and routing requests for consideration of an individual who may be in need of special education services. A brief statement of the rationale for the referral shall be made a part of the original referral.

The referral procedure shall provide for parent/guardian notification within fifteen (15) school days from the originating date of the referral.

All referrals received from any public or private source will be processed.

Students and parent/guardians shall have the right to initiate a referral of their child for special education services.
